HECATE is an internationally-circulated double peer-refereed journal.

HECATE prints material relating to women, particularly contributions which employ feminist, Marxist, anti-racist or other radical approaches. We also print creative work and graphics.

HECATE is published twice-yearly. Next issue May 2010. Hecate's Australian Women's Book Review also appears twice a year in May and November: it is now an internet journal only, and can be found on the web site below. Research articles should conform to the style used in this issue.

Typesetting by Bev Jeppesen. Thanks also to Sandra Gough, Angela Tuohy, Morag Ferrier, Cathy Squirrel, Vicky McNicol, Fiona McKean, Lois Shedd and Christine Edwards.

For financial support we thank the Literature Fund of the Australia Council, and Arts Queensland. We also thank the School of English, Media Studies and Art History at the University of Queensland for in kind and clerical support.

Printed by Watson Ferguson.

Published by Hecate Press, in association with the Centre for Research on Women, Gender, Culture and Social Change, in the School of English, Media Studies and Art History at the University of Queensland.
