HECATE is an internationally-circulated double peer-refereed journal.

HECATE prints material relating to women, particularly contributions which investigate, in particular, questions of gender, class, race and sexuality, using feminist, Marxist and other critical modes of inquiry. We also print creative writing.

HECATE is published twice-yearly. Next issue November 2014. The Australian Women's Book Review also appears twice a year in May and November: since Vol. 12 it has been an internet journal only, and can be found on the web site below. Research articles for Hecate should conform to the style used in this issue.

Typesetting by Bev Jeppesen. Thanks also to Angela Tuohy, Morag Ferrier, Cathy Squirrel, Vicky McNicol, Stormy Wehi, Jennifer Yared and Irtraud Petersson.

We thank the School of English, Media Studies and Art History now Communication and Arts at The University of Queensland for in kind and clerical support.

Printed by Watson Ferguson.

Published by Hecate Press, in association with the Women, Gender, Culture and Social Change Research Group in the School of Communication and Arts at The University of Queensland.
